Attend The Annual Army Ball In Sindelfingen

The 2002 Annual Army Ball will take place June 14 beginning at 6 p.m. in the Sindelfingen Stadthalle. Meal choices include pork, salmon and vegetarian. Ticket prices are $15 for grades E1-E6 and GS1-GS6; $30 for grades E7-E9, GS7-GS12 and O1-O4; and $40 for grades GS13+ and O5+. Spouses pay the same rate as the service member or civilian employee (unless they are service members or employees, then they pay their rate). All other guests (non-military affiliated) pay a flat fee of $30. Three Army Medal of Honor winners are scheduled to attend this year's ball, so don't miss out on the opportunity to meet these American heroes.

Bus transportation to and from the ball will be provided. The schedule will be published in the May 31 edition of the Community Post (hard copies only). Tickets can be obtained from unit Army Ball representatives or call 421-2530/civ. 0711-729-2530 for details.

Guard Force training is currently scheduled for May 23, 7:30 a.m. to noon in the Patch Barracks Theater. Tenant units requiring this training for their personnel should contact Staff Sgt. Michael Dodson, USA Physical Security Inspector, PMO, 430-6579/civ. 0711-680-6579.

Security Warning To Americans

The Department of State has reviewed the security announcement published by the German Federal Police May 3, regarding potential terrorist threats against passenger ships in Europe. The department has no further information about these threats. According to the statement, German authorities greatly doubt the credibility of the information behind the threats. The department notes, however, that German authorities are investigating the matter and are implementing required security measures. The department refers American citizens to the worldwide caution available on the Web at www.travel.state.gov.

U.S. License Plates Forbidden

Driving on stateside license plates while being a member of the armed forces (active duty, contractor, DOD civilian as well as family members with ID card privileges) in Germany is strictly forbidden under USAREUR Regulation 190-1. If your vehicle is being commercially shipped to Germany it must remain in the spot that it is delivered until you receive temporary USAREUR license plates from the Vehicle Registration office on Panzer Kaserne. For more info call 431-2833/civ. 07031-15833.

Report Suspected Espionage Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services.

Watch for someone who attempts to gain information through threats, coercion, bribery or trickery. Report it by calling the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206

Soldiers Attend PLDC

Soldiers with fewer than six months of Army service remaining can now attend the Primary Leadership Development Course if they join an Army Reserve or Army National Guard troop program unit upon leaving the active Army. Under current policy, soldiers incur a six-month service remaining obligation when they attend PLDC. The leadership course, which is the first level of instruction in the Noncommissioned Officer Education System, is a requirement for promotion to sergeant and beyond. Soldiers who are eligible to extend or re-enlist may still do so to continue their service and meet the service remaining requirement for PLDC. For information on the policy, contact the local servicing personnel service center or detachment.

Soldiers Sign Up For TSP

Soldiers who want to sign up for the Uniformed Services Thrift Savings Plan will have the chance to do so May 15 to July 31. New soldiers have 60 days from their enlistment date to sign up for the savings plan. Otherwise, soldiers may use two open seasons each year to join, quit or change the amount of their contributions. Currently, these periods are May 15 to July 31 and Nov. 15 to Jan. 31. Participants can invest any whole percentage (from 1 to 7 percent) of their base pay into the Uniserv TSP in 2002.

Soldiers may also elect to contribute any amount of incentive pay or special pay, including bonus pay. The best way to enroll is by completing and submitting an application online via the Employee/Member Self Service Web site at www.dfas.mil/emss <<http://www.dfas.mil/emss>>.
